

Europe and International Relations in the Post-Pandemic Scenario

International Relations and Public Diplomacy Programme Conference

International Conference

6-8 July 2021

University of Siena

Main University Building

6 July 2021: Arrival of participants

| | |
|--------------|--|
| 5.00-6.30 pm | The Double Degree Program in International Relations and Public Diplomacy Meeting between the JU and USIEna Faculties Chair, Cristina Capineri (USIEna) |
| 7.30 pm | Informal Dinner (Restaurant tbc) |

7 July 2021. Conference: Day I – A Changing European Scenario

| | |
|------------|--|
| 9.30 am | Welcome by the Rector of the University of Siena Introduction: Luca Verzichelli (USIEna) and Marcin Grabowski (JU Krakow) Short roundtable: participants introduce themselves |
| 9.45-10.45 | Future of Europe. The Political Scenario <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Luca Verzichelli (USIEna), The Future of EU élites after the Pandemic - Mattia Guidi (USIEna), The Italian National Recovery and Resilience Plan: development and features |
| | Coffee Break |
| 11.15-1 pm | Europe in the International Scenario <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Arkadiusz Górniewicz (JU), Security and the Politics of Exception as Challenges to Liberal Democracy - Paulina Napierala (JU), African American Churches and Foreign Policy Issues: between Black Christian Zionism and the Support for Palestinian Civil Rights – on-line - Pierangelo Isernia (USIEna), Populism and Foreign Policy |
| 1.00–2.30 | Lunch break |
| 2.30-3.30 | USIEna and Krakow Guido Badalamenti, and Milena Fadda (USIEna): The International Strategies of USIEna Ewa Trojanar (JU Krakow), The International Strategies of the JU in Krakow |

| | |
|-----------|---|
| | Marcin Grabowski (JU Krakow), The Katamaran Project: Outlines of the collaboration between Usiena and JU IRO Staff (USiena), International Programmes and International students: the USiena experience |
| 3.30-4.00 | Coffee Break |
| 4.00-5.00 | USiena and JU IRO Staff and IR Delegates Roundtable on future of Cooperation: Jean Monnet Actions, EU funded Research Projects and Cost Actions |
| 5:00 | Guided Visit: the Rectorate historical building (same venue) |
| 8.00 | Dinner in town hosted by the University of Siena |

8 July. Conference: Day II

| | |
|----------------|--|
| 9.15-10.45 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ewa Trojnar (JU), COVID-19 Pandemic as a New Tool for Diplomatic Strategies in China and Taiwan Marcin Grabowski (JU) Role of COVID-19 in Chaning Dynamic of Great Power Relations: US-China Case Study Alessandro Lamonica (USiena), International Cultural Relations. A theoretical approach |
| 10.45 – 11.15 | Coffee break |
| 11.15 – 1 p.m. | Studying International Relations and Public Diplomacy. Roundtable with selected students from JU Krakow and USiena Rafaella De Negri, Anton Sokolin (JU): Pandemic Diplomacy Johann Kattentsroth: Anti Vaxxers: A Threat to International Security Caetano Dallora: Global Health Diplomacy and Multilateralism Crisis: analysis and impacts of COVID-19 Justyna Stanska: Will COVID-19 pandemic cause the collapse of capitalism? Post-capitalist views of the future Pierre Louis Picot: Will the International System be able to rebuild a sense of international solidarity? Francesca Marconi: Rescuing Public Health: How (only) a new multilateralism can take us out of the global crisis Valentina Pettosini, Hatam Ansari, Marcella Toledo (USiena): Studying Public and Cultural Diplomacy in Covid times |
| 1.p.m. | End of the Meeting |
| Optional | Guided visits (to be defined on demand) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The FabLab and SantaChiara Innovation Lab Guided Visit at the Civic Museum |